Kiev museum hosts Days of Israel

A Kiev cultural museum played host to Ukraine's international Days of Israel event.

The event being held at the "Mystetskiy Arsenal" cultural museum complex ended on Tuesday.

Security at the entrance to the event was tight in light of the recent deaths of activists on a Gaza-bound flotilla, during clashes with Israeli naval forces who intercepted the ships.

Days of Israel was initiated by the Israeli Cultural Center at the Israeli Embassy in Kiev, and was planned in cooperation with many local Jewish organizations and with the Jewish Agency for Israel and the Kiev Jewish community.

Visitors viewed exhibits which highlighted Israel as a country with a rich, ancient history and impressive achievements in high-tech, medicine, agriculture and art.

An Israeli street installation featured shops, galleries, street ads, bars, restaurants, theaters, and cinemas. Guests could move from one stand to the next and gain a real-life impression of Israel.

More than 4,000 guests visited the event each day, according to the organization committee.

Italian regional president visits Israel

The new president of Italy's Lazio region chose Israel for her first official trip abroad.

Renata Polverini, on her trip Sunday and Monday, accompanied 40 high school pupils who had won an annual contest sponsored by the Lazio region for projects dealing with Holocaust memory "as the heritage of humanity."

The group visited Yad Vashem and the Shimon Peres Center for Peace, as well as other sites.

Rome is located in Lazio, and Rome's chief rabbi and the president of the Rome Jewish community also took part in the trip.

During her visit, Polverini said she would return to Israel in July to visit Israel's Arrow Ecology waste treatment company to discuss waste management projects in Lazio.

Before leaving for Israel, Polverini and Rome's mayor joined the Rome Jewish community last Friday for a ceremony in Rome marking the 66th anniversary of the reopening of the city's main synagogue in 1944 following its closure during World War II.
