This week, in conjunction with Parashat Vayechi, OSTT/Olney has joined many other congregations around the country in teaming up with National Association of Chevra Kadisha

To open the conversation on end-of-life issues, Rabbi Milikowsky will present a special Dvar Torah on the issue, entitled "Parental Responsibilities into the Next Generation"

And Rabbi Ben-Horin will continue the conversation at Seudat Shelishit, with a talk entitled "Should I Stay or Should I Go-to be Buried in Israel?" Please plan on being at these important events.

Special Announcement

A resident of the Olney community has reached out to us for help during a trying time. After hitting a dear and totaling her car, she finds herself without transportation to her only means of parnassa. As a caring synagogue community, we would like to help out in any way we can. If you or anyone you know has a car that you are not using and can donate, that would be very appreciated. It doesn't even have to be the best running car, she'll take anything she can get. If you can help, or you know someone who can help, please contact either Rabbi Milikowsky (rabbimilik@gmail.com) or Joe (joeg@ostt.org), 240-778-4722. Thank You!

Coming Soon to OSTT/Olney

Book Club will be starting up again the last week in January. The book will be: "24/6"-The Power of Unplugging One Day A Week
The new book by Tiffany Shlain. Available at amazon.com
