

RABBI AHRON HOCH

For over 40 years, Rabbi Hoch was one of the key forces in the growth of Aish HaTorah in Toronto, bringing it from 5 families to a powerhouse that has reached thousands with programs, speakers and seminars aimed at strengthening Jewish identity. In addition, with the vision of building a role model community, he became spiritual leader of The Village Shul in 1999. Now he is devoting his time to helping the next generation, inspiring and guiding other communities that strive to grow.
